Early Childhood Transfer Process

When is the Early Childhood Transfer Process?

- Early Childhood Transfer Process begins the Thursday after Labor Day (Sept 6), and lasts for the rest of the year.

What is the Early Childhood Transfer Process?

- Families may elect to transfer at will, but must first meet with their school or center.
 - Early Childhood Transfer paperwork documents this meeting took place. If the child is actively assigned, the FRC will ask for this form.
 - Upon meeting and signing the form, neither schools nor EnrollNOLA may deny the transfer request.
- Students assigned to a seat will stay active on their top choice waitlist, but will be removed from all other waitlists.

Why does the Early Childhood Transfer Process exist?

- Offers the flexibility families desire, but gives programs an opportunity to address parent concerns before a transfer is permitted, ensuring continuity of care for our youngest learners.
